

PUBLIC NOTICE

APPEAL FOR NATURAL SCIENCE MUSEUM VOLUNTEERS

Do you want to contribute to your community in the fields of science education and tourism? Do you have some qualifications in the fields of conservation, tourism or marketing but cannot find a job and would like to gain extra skills? Or maybe you have some experience in the above fields. Would you like to try something new to do this year? Then by all means contact us and find out more. The Durban Natural Science Museum is holding an annual Volunteer Training Course. It starts on February 2011 and runs for two weeks, mornings only, from 09:00 to 12:30 every day. The cost of the Course is R120 and this covers notes and provides membership of the Museum Friends Society for the year. We are looking for people who have a matric with Life Sciences (or Biology) and / or some qualification or experience in the fields of conservation, travel and tourism, marketing or education. To be considered for the Course and to enrol you must contact Busi Gumede or Zoe Nhleko by either visiting the Natural Science Museum or telephoning on 031 311 2256.

The closing date for applications is Friday, 27 January 2012.
